

---

10 Umpire traits

- Enjoys the game of cricket and assists in it being played in the spirit of sportsmanship while displaying the spirit of cricket himself
- Strives to become a better umpire as they seeks to achieve excellence
- Always possesses a high level of communication, inter personal and people management skills
- Embraces the concept of teamwork and acts out the ICC's Playing Control Team's "Code of Values"
- Shows persistence and self control when things aren't going their way and the courage to back themselves through adverse conditions
- Is technically sound and skilful and perseveres to implement these skills
- Is knowledgeable, willing to asses new information and wants to be a partner in a learning environment
- Possesses a coachable work ethic
- Is a leader, responsible and self reliant umpire who has a sense of presence on the field
- Is well prepared and understands the physical and mental requirements of their umpiring game